VIEWS and REVIEWS By The Editor

ADDED SERVICE: GLENDALE BENEFITS

All carrier subscribers to The Glendale Daily Press will, beginning today, also receive The Los Angeles Evening Express, and all subscribers to The Los Angeles Evening Express will also receive The Glendale Daily Press, at a charge of 65 cents per month, covering the delivered cost of both papers. In this combination service of a Glendale and Los Angeles newspaper, readers are given full and accurate reports of local activities, as well as all the important news of the world.

The Glendale Daily Press plans to take its place among the leading dailies in California and has arranged to furnish its readers many new features, among which may be mentioned the famous Johnston cartoons, editorials by Dr. Frank Crane, a daily poem by James W. Foley, America's greatest living poet, and comment on daily news by Henry James, one of California's best known and most loved editorial writers. We have arranged for many other features concerning which we will tell you more fully later.

In The Los Angeles Evening Express readers will note that the world's greatest authorities are daily contributors; and subscribers will have the unequalled full news service of the Associated Press, which is conceded by those who know to be the world's greatest and most reliable news-gathering organization.

Beginning with today's issue, The Glendale Daily Press is able to guarantee to advertisers over 3,000 paid subscribers and will, by the end of the month, be delivered to over 3,500 paid subscribers. We firmly believe that the paid circulation of The Glendale Daily Press will reach the 4,000 mark within a very few weeks and our confident prediction is that Glendale advertisers will, on account of the remarkable growth of this city, be reaping advertising benefits from a subscription list of over 5,000 before six months have passed.

TRUTH IS MIGHTY; LET JUSTICE BE DONE

It was not surprising Wednesday to learn that Roscoe Arbuckle had admitted to some of the members of his now notorious party in San Francisco on Labor Day that he was the cause of the death of Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress. An impartial review of all that has been said of that disgraceful party in the St. Francis Hotel has led many to the belief that, sooner or later, Arbuckle would admit the brutal crime.

The public has always given Roscoe Arbuckle a "square deal and justice now demands that a square deal be given the girl who is dead. The reported confession of Arbuckle will probably save a very ugly battle in court and suppress a condition that will necessarily have to turn about and play fair with the public.

It is revealed in the Arbuckle case that those who have said that the motion picture is a disgrace to modern civilization were right. There are a few upright, honorable and good people in the motion picture industry, but one does not have to be twins to count them on fingers and toes. Like the saloon business, the motion picture industry is its own worst enemy. The saloons were so utterly indifferent to public opinion that they killed themselves, and it is so with the motion picture industry.

The public is not glad that Roscoe Arbuckle faces the gallows. Virginia Rappe, the victim of Roscoe Arbuckle, has not died in vain if her death is the means of cleaning the motion picture industry from top to bottom. It should no longer be said of a motion picture actress that he or she has been married "several" times. Their private lives should be as void of scandal as those of the family physician and the family minister. The movie actor or actress is well-known and admired in the average American home, where they are freely discussed and praised for their work. When they crush the confidence of men, women and children in the American home, they are unworthy of respect and should no longer be members of any "film colony."

The fountain head of the industry is not blameless. Sex problems and domestic difficulties seem to be the goal of the producers. These pictures have been a failure and it is now up to the producers to present clean pictures, with clean actors and actresses. If it can't be done, the motion picture industry will be buried by the side of old John B. Barleycorn, the greatest enemy mankind has ever known.

MYSTERY TO BE REVEALED AT HEARING

BRADY IS NOW WORRIED

Defense Will Show Its Hand
During Arraignment in Police Court

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Lowell Sherman, movie actor, who is desired as a witness by the prosecutor at San Francisco in the "Fatty" Arbuckle case, was located by detectives today and was served with a request subpoena, which will induce Sherman to submit to questioning by Edward Swann, New York district attorney. Sherman readily agreed to be a witness provided what he divulged was not given out by Swann to the papers and provided he was not questioned by reporters.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—Whether or not Roscoe Arbuckle must face a jury trial for murder will be decided at the preliminary hearing of the charges against him, this afternoon.

The hearing was expected to give the first inkling of the defense of Arbuckle against the charge of the State that he, by an attack, caused injuries which resulted in the death of Virginia Rappe.

Until today the defense has maintained an impenetrable silence, but with the cross-examination of the witnesses to be placed on the stand by the State in an effort to secure commitment of Arbuckle to trial for murder, the determined battle to free the former film star was to be under way.

Al Semmacher, manager of the dead film actress, whose story before a Los Angeles grand jury late yesterday injected a new sensation into the case, has arrived and was taken before District Attorney Matthew Brady for further questioning as to his sworn statement that Arbuckle had admitted the commission of an act against Virginia Rappe which might have resulted in her illness.

Arbuckle's alleged admission was made, according to Semmacher, in the presence of Fred Fischbach, Lowell Sherman and Harry McCullough. Fischbach has already been questioned about it and made, according to the district attorney, "an evasive reply."

To newspaper men, however, Fischbach denied the lie to Semmacher's statement, denying point blank that Arbuckle had ever discussed in his presence what took place in the hotel room.

Lowell Sherman apparently has been questioning. No word has been received from him by District Attorney Brady since his disappearance from a train bound for New York City. A report was current here that Sherman was en route for Europe when he left Los Angeles for the East. District Attorney Brady, however, was of the opinion that Sherman will eventually return as a witness. Should he fail to do so voluntarily, it was intimated, an indictment will bring about his extradition.

District Attorney Brady planned a brisk presentation of his case against Arbuckle. He anticipated that one full day will enable him to lay his case before Police Judge Lazarus. As an evidence that he expects the defense to make strenuous efforts to free Arbuckle at this hearing was shown by his estimate that the defense "might take two days."

For the first time today anxiety was expressed by the district attorney's office because of the failure of Dr. Arthur Beardslee to put in an appearance. He was one of the first physicians to attend Miss Rappe, and left on a hunting trip before her death and was located only last Saturday in a wild mountain country. He agreed to return, and should have arrived Tuesday. A detective was assigned today to search for him.

At the same time, careful inquiry was being made into the identity of the mysterious "Edna Grant."

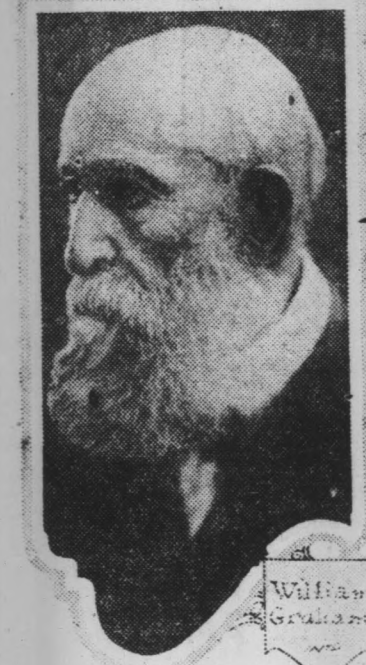

Two letters have been received from Miss Grant promising an important story in the Arbuckle case. The latest, received last night, said she would appear Monday and bring with her another nurse would corroborate her story. In the letter she said she had been threatened with death after writing her first letter. Although District Attorney Brady would not make public his first witness to be examined this afternoon, it was understood that Dr. Shelby Strange, official autopsy surgeon, would be heard first.

MAIL ROBBERIES ON BIG DECREASE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Mail robberies have been practically stamped out as the result of the arming of postal employees and the offer of a reward for the capture of mail robbers. Postmaster-General Hays announced today. For the year ending April 1, 1921, the amount stolen from the mails was $6,340,407, with a recovery of $3,286,017.

In April postal employees were given revolvers and shotguns with instructions to use them if necessary and a reward of $5,000 was offered anyone who might bring in a mail robber. In the five months since the promulgation of the order the total amount stolen dropped to $88,580, with a recovery of $78,555.

WOMAN'S PARTY TO DISCUSS AMENDMENT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Members of the executive committee and council of the National Woman's party met here today to pass upon the final draft of the proposed constitutional amendment designed to remove all legal inequalities of women.

The resolution for the amendment is to be introduced in the Senate by Senator Curtis, of Kansas, and in the House by Representative Fess, of Ohio.

It has been in the course of preparation by officers of the woman's party for several months and in its present form has received the endorsement of constitutional lawyers. At its meeting today members of the council also prepared plans for the formal dedication of its new headquarters opposite the Capitol. The headquarters were purchased for $750 by Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont and are to be dedicated on November 3.

Gas Experiments Cause Explosions

PARIS, Sept. 22.—The explosion that wrecked the Oppau plant of the Badische Anilin Fabrik Co. is thought by some to have been the result of experiments with new war gases.

More than 900 bodies have been recovered. The factory was completely gutted and the damage estimated has risen to several billions of marks. Germans in the explosion zone are grateful for French relief.

The cause of the explosion was undoubtedly due to a test being made in one of the laboratories. Tests were being given under compression to a gas, the properties of which were imperfectly known. During this test the gas exploded, igniting stores of nitrate compound, it is believed.

Great Steel Vault Is Cause of Much Comment by Many Visitors

Marking the formal opening of the First Savings Bank of Glendale, the new institution is holding open house from 9 o'clock this morning to 9 tonight in its banking home at 104 East Broadway.

"Come in and get acquainted" is the slogan of the day, and the bank's officers have been busily engaged in showing the many visitors about their commodious quarters, which have been completely equipped to handle the various services which the new institution is offering to its patrons.

Every one opening a savings account of $1.00 or more today will be presented with a handsome leather memorandum book with the owner's name stamped in gold on the cover, as a souvenir of the opening day.

One feature which is attracting particular attention is the new safe deposit vault, constructed at a total cost, including equipment, of $16,500. A six-inch steel door with triple-time lock and weighing 11 tons, guards the entrance, and the walls of the vault are of the heaviest concrete reinforced with steel.

The First Savings Bank is distinctly a Glendale institution, all of its stock being owned by the stockholders of the First National Bank of this city, and its officers and directors are all local men who are well-known in Glendale business and financial circles. Their personal integrity and wide business experience assures for this bank a careful, efficient management and a successful future.

The officers and directors are: C. C. Cooper, president; R. F. Kitterman, vice-president; Ed. M. Lee, vice-president; E. U. Emery, vice-president; William A. Goss, assistant cashier and secretary; W. W. Lee, H. J. Webb, M. P. Harrison, George T. Paine, E. L. Osborn, Jr., William A. Goss, E. U. Emery, R. F. Kitterman and C. C. Cooper, directors.

COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC MEN IN CONVENTION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—The first national convention of the National Council of Catholic Men assembled here today, with delegates present from practically every diocese in the United States. The convention met at the Catholic University, where the annual conference of archbishops and bishops also is taking place. Nearly 600 representatives of the diocesan organizations are in attendance.

Various committees of the convention have prepared for approval and adoption a program of nation-wide activities in which Catholic men are to engage under the direction of the archbishops and bishops of the 101 dioceses. The work of the National Council is to include civic and patriotic service, as well as purely religious endeavor.

The convention plans to establish Catholic community centers in the larger cities of the country, to found a national school for training Catholic men in social welfare work, and for conducting a general campaign for civic education and Americanization. A method for financing the council is also to be determined.

EX-POLICEMAN ARRESTED IN BIG RAID

Guy Wells, With Three Other
Men, Charged With a Series of Thefts

IN LOS ANGELES JAIL

Sensational Charges Will Be Filed Against Others Is the Current Report

Guy Wells, former member of the Glendale police force, William Kinney, "Chuck" Wilson and Ernest Theed, all of Glendale, were arrested late yesterday in a raid conducted at several places between Glendale and Burbank by Prohibition Enforcement Officers Dan O'Leary and Wheeler, and James L. Brown of the Glendale Merchants' Patrol, his assistant, Walker, and three Burbank police officers.

The men were taken to the county jail in Los Angeles, where they are held on charges including impersonating government officers, Glendale officers, bootlegging and robbery. Several additional charges are impending that may be filed later, it is said.

According to Officer Brown, he has been conducting an investigation into the actions of the men for some time and unearthed sufficient evidence to warrant the raid.

It is alleged that the men arrested last night are the same men who, a short time ago, stole 55 gallons of whiskey and $69 in cash from a man known as "Dago" Frank, who lives between Glendale and Burbank on the San Fernando road. In addition to this theft, it is charged that the men are implicated in several other robberies of liquor from wineries in the same vicinity.

Another charge against the men is that they impersonated government officers and secured $500 from a man at Sunland as alleged "hush" money.

According to a current rumor, Guy Wells, when arrested and taken to the county jail, gave the officers a written statement regarding the alleged crimes for which the men were arrested, and in this statement it is said that several other men were named.

In addition to the charges already filed against the men, officers who made the raid stated that it is believed that the men now in custody are also implicated in several robberies which have occurred in this vicinity in the past few months.

Wells was dismissed from the Glendale police force a few weeks ago for reasons that made it impossible for him to continue as a peace officer.

William Kinney, one of the men arrested, was recently the complaining witness in the trial of three girls held for petit larceny in connection with an alleged "wild party" said to have been held at the Kinney home on Vine street during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Kinney at a nearby beach.

PRESBYTERIANS TO BEGIN PLANS FOR NEW EDIFICE

Plans Approved, While Committee Starts to Raise Funds for Building

BEGIN WORK IN SPRING

Increase in Membership and Unanimity of Membership Very Pleasing

At the largest congregational meeting ever held by the Glendale Presbyterian church, which followed the mid-week prayer service, the building and finance committees of the three joint boards were, by a practically unanimous vote, instructed to perfect plans for the proposed new church and to institute a campaign to raise $150,000 to finance it.

While the action had been anticipated, the unanimity of sentiment was very gratifying, and the building committee, of which W. J. Clendenin is chairman, will instruct Architect Robert Orr to perfect the plans recently submitted. It is expected that several months will elapse before blue prints and specifications will be available. In the meantime, the finance committee, of which Dr. J. K. Gilkerson is chairman, will get busy. Actual construction will not begin before spring.

Besides the quarters for the various departments of the church, the general plan calls for an auditorium that will seat 1500 persons. Twelve years ago, when the present church edifice was built on the corner of Broadway and Cedar, it increased the seating capacity to three times that of the original building. Should the same ratio of increase be maintained, the church in ten years will require an auditorium of 2200 capacity, say the members of the building committee.

DAMAGED

ELDER BALLENGER IS CALLED TO HIS FINAL REST

Venerable Adventist Minister Passes Away After Life of High Endeavor

Elder John Fox Ballenger passed away yesterday, September 20, 1921, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. J. Hibben, 203 East Laurel street, Glendale. He was eighty-seven years of age. Elder Ballenger was born on a farm on the site where the city of Columbus, Ohio, now stands, on September 8, 1834. He was next to the youngest and last remaining member of a family of nine children. His father was a circuit rider for the Methodist Church and located his family in Northern Illinois in 1837. Here he toiled for their support and at stated times rode miles on horseback to fill his appointments. In his later years he was known as the "white-haired Saint." His mantle fell upon his son, John, who in early manhood heard and obeyed the call to the ministry. For fifty years he labored in the Seventh Day Adventist denomination filling appointments in Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, Canada and California. He was transferred to California in 1917 and he loved California, often saying that it was the paradise of the world. His life companion was laid to rest March 2, 1907. Love for his children and his Master's work made life worth living and he was unusually strong until the sudden death of his elder son, A. S. Ballenger of Riverside, which occurred just one month ago. From this grief he could not seem to rally and gradually failed until death came. He leaves to mourn, three children—Elder E. F. Ballenger, pastor of the Seventh Day Baptist Church at Riverside, Mrs. Nellie Simpson and Mrs. D. J. Hibben of Glendale, eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Interment will be held at Forest Lawn from the Little Church of the Flowers Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Pulliam & Keifer in charge. Elder Owen of Loma Linda College is expected to officiate.

PEACE TREATIES IN SENATE LAID OVER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—No action was taken today by the Senate foreign relations committee on the German, Austrian and Hungarian peace treaties.

Opposition voiced by Senator Borah, Republican, of Idaho, to the German-American pact, prevented the committee from getting beyond a preliminary discussion of it. The Austrian and Hungarian pacts were not reached.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Luster at Once

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

HOUSE TO PLAY QUIET ROLE DURING SESSION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—It was doubtful today that a majority of the 435 House members were present when the House reconvened at noon from its recess since August 24.

A "gentleman's agreement" stood in the way of ascertainment of attendance, because it blocked any roll call and the transaction of any business by the House until October.

Perfunctorily the House met, because the Senate was in a snarl over the Anti-Beer bill when recess was taken and the House could not get the longer recess it craved. There was an opening prayer by Chaplain Montgomery that all legislation the House should enact would prove wise, a reading of the August 24 journal of proceedings and a three-day recess. These three-day recesses by the House will continue until October.

Anxious for Action
Returning members are anxious to see the tax and tariff legislation enacted into law and are awaiting impatiently final action on both bills by the Senate. The House calendars are free of important business. A few bills of general importance are before committees, but House leaders would not protest if all these bills should remain in committee until the general session, beginning in December. Among these bills are the Maternity bill, providing Federal aid for mothers and infants; the Selective Immigration bill, providing for the weeding out of undesirable would-be immigrants before they leave their home country; an International Monetary Conference bill, providing for a currency stabilization conference between the United States, England and France, and a few others.

Expect Good Roads Agreement
A Good Roads bill passed the Senate in the closing hours before the recess and is waiting to be taken up in the House. This bill carries an appropriation of $75,000,000 carried over a period of five years for state road building, conditioned on the state meeting the Federal contribution in cash, on state maintenance and agreement as to standardization of width of roads.

It is probable that the Senate bill will be sent to the House Roads committee for consideration. It differs in important particulars from similar legislation adopted by the House, especially in the matter of Federal cooperation in the standardization of the roads. An agreement on the legislation is expected before adjournment of the special session of Congress because of the pressure from States that will benefit heavily and the pressure for public works to provide employment for the unemployed.

Budget to Be Prepared
Early next month the House Appropriation Committee will get busy with the national budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 next, and start the preparation of the fourteen great supply bills providing funds for the various executive departments and Government bureaus and agencies. This will be a more difficult task than formerly, because the House will put in to full force and effect the new budget system, which places responsibility for all estimates on the President, who acts through a Director of the Budget, and responsibility for expenditures on a comptroller general. While the Director of the Budget is influential in regulating the estimates of necessary appropriations for governmental uses and purposes, the Appropriations Committees of House and Senate and Congress have final jurisdiction and authority.

SOCIAL

COLUMBUS SCHOOL P.T. A. MEETING

The Parent-Teachers' Association of the Columbus avenue school is meeting this afternoon and will be addressed by Mrs. John Robert White, president of the P.T. A. Federation. Richardson D. White, superintendent of schools, who will also talk on the school bond election of October 11. Mrs. C. H. Pendleton will give piano solos.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE
FEDERATED P.T. A.

At a meeting of the membership committee of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teachers' Associations held at the home of Mrs. John Robert White, president, organization was perfected for a campaign to increase the membership to 3,000 or more, and make the organization one of the largest in the State.

It now has an enrollment of about 2,500, but it is believed to goal of 3,000 will be reached.

ENDEAVOR SOCIETY WILL HAVE PARTY

Christian Endeavor Society "B" of the Glendale Presbyterian Church has announced a party, the evening of September 30, for the intermediates who will graduate September 25.

The festivity will take place in the Lydia room of the church and every member is urged to be present.

FORTNIGHTLY WILL REORGANIZE

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Barton will entertain at dinner, members of the Fortnightly Bridge club at their home, 630 North Howard street. At that time plans will probably be made for the reorganization of the club and regular meetings.

PARENT-TEACHERS
GIVE RECEPTION

The Federation of Parent-Teachers' Association will hold a reception for the teachers on Monday evening, October 10, in the girls' gymnasium at the high school.

All mothers, husbands and friends are expected to be present to greet the teachers.

HOME WRECKER IS GIVEN LASHING BY MASKED MEN

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Sept. 22.—C. C. Anderson, a barber of Boynton, near here, was reported to have departed from that city today following his whipping last night at the hands of a party of 18 masked men who accused him of being a home-wrecker.

Anderson was taken from Boynton early in the evening. A reporter for a morning newspaper here answered a mysterious summons, appeared at Summit, Okla., at an appointed time last night and was made a member of the party.

According to the reporter, Anderson walked in pain while the lash was being administered and promised fervently to leave Boynton at once. His captors informed him they did not represent the Ku Klux Klan.

KERN OFFICIAL WILL NOT MAKE ARREST UNTIL JUSTIFIED

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Sept. 22.—Martin Madsen, private secretary to Gov. Stevens, has arrived here and began a conference with District Attorney Dorsey and Sheriff Newell, regarding conditions in the oil fields where 5,000 men are on strike.

There was some discussion among business men during the day regarding the possibility of requesting the presence of some State troops if there is continued shooting along highways where some of the strikers are stationed.

In connection with a shooting affair yesterday, reported by W. R. Warner, following which warrants were asked by Warner for persons alleged to have fired bullets at his automobile, District Attorney Rorsey announced:

"I am investigating the case, but I do not issue warrants just because some one asks for them. This is the first time in connection with the oil strike that any one has asked for a warrant.

"I shall do my duty even though it may not be to the liking of some concerned. The fact that I do not always issue warrants when asked to do so is not a new policy with me. It is one I have followed ever since I have been in office."

ANTI-BEER GETS FIRST ATTENTION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Supporters of the "bone dry" search and seizure section of the Anti-Beer bill forced the Senate today to take up the conference report of the measure.

By a vote of 31 to 23, a motion by Senator Sterling, Republican, of South Dakota, that the Senate resume consideration of the conference report, was adopted despite efforts of Senator Penrose, Republican, to have the $3,400,000,000 tax revision bill taken up instead.

The Senate's action gave the Anti-Beer measure the right of way over all other pending legislation.

ALLEGED SLAYER IS SUICIDE IN PRISON

BELLEVIEW, Ill., Sept. 22.—The body of K. M. Pace, charged with the murder of Mrs. Emma Fortner, was found dangling from the end of a cot strap in the jail here today. Pace had failed in two previous attempts at suicide.

Pace is alleged to have shot Mrs. Fortner because she refused to leave her husband and elope with him.

IRISH SITUATIONS CONFLICT WHILE PREMIER TOILS

DUBLIN, Sept. 22.—Republican Ireland refuses to take seriously the pessimism expressed by British correspondents at Cairo, Scotland, near Premier Lloyd George's retreat, over progress being made toward an Irish settlement.

On the contrary, Sinn Féin circles in Dublin today are inclined to regard as hopeful signs the fact that Lloyd George had postponed for one week his reply to "President" de Valera's last note, in which de Valera asked the premier to explain just where the negotiations stood.

As Irish politicians believe it possible that during the week's delay confidential attaches of the premier's suite will sound out de Valera upon certain points.

Advisers of Premier Lloyd George who have been in Dublin for the last few days have impressed upon their chief that de Valera is resolute in his stand against entering a conference bound by any preliminary conditions. Sinn Féiners are most hopeful today that a conference will be held.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat if You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Trouble

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

What Every Husband Knows

Co-Ed As Factor In American College Life

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—The co-ed as a factor in American college life is yet in its infancy.

The time is approaching, the Bureau of Education believes, when there will be as many women as men enrolled in universities and other higher institutions of learning.

Not only is this predictions supported by the fact that more girls than boys graduate annually from the bureau during the past twenty-six years show that the number of college women have increased 156 per cent in that period, while the number of men have advanced only 143 per cent.

In the year 1890 of all the college students in the United States 68.3 per cent were men and only 31.7 per cent women, but in 1916 only 63.2 per cent were men and 36.8 per cent were women. Abrupt increases in the number of women were also reported in 1918, but this was due, it was stated, to war conditions.

These figures are contained in a comprehensive survey of universities, colleges and professional schools for the school year of 1917-18, just completed under the direction of H. R. Bonner, chief of the statistical division of the Bureau of Education. The report is to become a part of the biennial survey of education in the United States, 1917-18.

Bonner points out that the proportion of high school graduates who enter college may be expected to decrease as high schools become more vocationalized.

Men Teachers Predominate

"It is evident," he says, "that colleges and universities have not succeeded in more recent years in drawing as large a proportion of high school graduates as they formerly did. The multiplication of high schools, in the attempt to give every boy and girl the advantages of a high school education, has not resulted in a large proportion of subsequent enrollment in collegiate and graduate courses. One who has completed a commercial course in high school is not so likely to enter college after graduation as a student who has taken the purely academic or college preparatory course."

The information upon which Bonner bases his findings was collected from 672 universities, colleges and professional schools. Most of the number are small colleges although a few very large institutions are included.

The teaching staffs in the higher educational institutions, according to the report, consists largely of men, there being about four men to one woman. Almost 60 per cent of the instructors in preparatory departments are men; in collegiate departments, 79 per cent, and in professional schools, 81 per cent.

"These percentages are significant," the report states, "in view of the fact that in public high schools only 35 per cent of the teachers are men, and in the elementary schools only 13.5 per cent. There is a tendency, therefore, for women to monopolize the elementary and secondary school work and for men to control the work in the higher institutions. The percentage of men instructors in colleges and universities has been steadily increasing since 1892, while the proportion of women teachers has decreased correspondingly. About one-half as many women as men receive graduate degrees from our colleges and universities, but only about one-fourth as many teach in these higher institutions. On the other hand about eight times as many men as women receive the Ph.D. degree conferred on examination, yet only four times as many become teachers in universities."

The report estimated that in 1918 there was only one college graduate living for every 116 persons in the total population of the United States. If only the population 23 years of age and over had been considered, it was stated, the ratio would become one college graduate to every 61 adults.

68 to 1,000 Win Degrees

More than one-half of the graduates of four-year high schools enter colleges at some time, according to the report, the percentage being 51.7. It is estimated that only 2.3 per cent of the children entering the first grade of school will graduate from a college course. On the same basis, out of each thousand entering high school, 406 will graduate, 210 will enter college and only 68 will complete a college course. Similarly, it is found that for each 1,900 entering college, 416 will become seniors and 322 will graduate. Almost 30 per cent of the students enrolled in the first year of college do not enter the second.

The report points out that while the amount of Federal aid to universities and colleges has increased in general, the proportion of revenue derived from this source has almost steadily decreased in comparison with the amount derived from other sources. In general, the higher institutions are coming more and more to depend upon the state or city for support and less on income from productive funds, private benefactions and Federal support. The report states that:

Productive Funds Small
"The public institutions as a general rule derive a very small proportion of their revenue from productive funds. Almost a negligible percentage is secured from private benefactions. The great bulk of income of these institutions comes from public sources and from student fees and other sources. In Alabama, Idaho and North Dakota are conspicuous because of the unusually high percentages of revenue derived from productive funds. Delaware and Florida derive comparatively high proportions of their income from private sources. The District of Columbia, Mississippi, Vermont and Virginia get relatively small percentages of income from public sources."

Household Hints

When chopping parsley, add salt to it. The parsley will chop much finer and the salt also freshens the parsley.

Ankle-length skirts and long, flowing sleeves will be much in evidence.

A recent cable from Paris states that "the vogue for black crepe is promised, even in dress accessories."

In a number of beaded versions, georgette blouses are shown.

Because of the vogue for black, the fashion trends emphasized in black are indicative of the acceptability of the style.

A decidedly individual touch is obtained in the use of simple motifs, such as a fancy pleating or the use of an edging of folded points on collars and cuffs of all sizes and shapes.

A panel dress in black is trimmed in "S" angles bordering the sleeves, up the sides on the sash ends and to border the panels.

For evening there are a great many fancy jeweled bracelets, catching in the long lace or chiffon that comes from the shoulder.

Big coat sleeves are also a special feature, and a typical model has these sleeves but is a straightline and fairly narrow wrist, with no belt or sign of waistline.

The proper height for a street dress is seven or eight inches, for an evening gown longer, and for a dance frock about twelve inches.

A coat suggestive for travel wear is in a gray cheviot, with white lynx tuxedo collars and cuffs.

Black is to be the leading color for footwear.

Low shoes will be made in satin, suede, patent leather and black kid with baby Louise and junior heels.

Street oxfords in the dark calf and medium Russian calfs with low heels or Cuban heels, will be worn in fancy patterns.

One of the interesting displays in Chicago is of fur shoes.

Paillette robes are also evening favorites, as are draped velvets. One draped gown in green is trimmed with ropes of luminous pearls.

Tuxedo sweaters feature various fancy weaves, the collars being of brushed worsted and other contrasting materials.

An automobile robe in brushed wool is an imported novelty, as well as a baby carriage robe of soft wool in reversible color combinations.

Jackets made to flare and give the cape effect are being developed in Paris.

The public institutions in Arkansas, Maryland and New York derive practically all their income from public sources.

"The private institutions, except in Vermont, get very little revenue from public sources. The greatest proportion of revenue comes from student fees and other sources. A considerable proportion also comes from productive funds and private sources. Connecticut, Illinois and Idaho derive large proportions of their income from private sources. Private institutions in California, Connecticut, Florida, Illinois, Louisiana, Maine and Texas receive relatively large percentages of revenue from productive funds. In Alabama, Arkansas, the District of Columbia, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Washington and West Virginia over 70 per cent of the income of these private schools is derived from student fees and other incidental sources."

FUNERAL FRIDAY FOR H. E. CHANDLER

Funeral services for H. E. Chandler, who died suddenly Tuesday night will be held at 2:30 Friday afternoon at the undertaking establishment of J. E. Farris, Tenth and Flower streets, Los Angeles. Services will be conducted by the officers of the Glendale lodge of Elks, of which deceased had been a member for eight years.

Deceased was 60 years old and was a native of Massachusetts. He came to California from Chicago about 25 years ago, following his half-brother, C. C. Chandler, who was one of the pioneers of Tropic.

For 20 years he lived in the Tropic district, leaving there to make his home in Los Angeles three years ago, following the death of his first wife.

Deceased leaves a widow, who lives at 719 West 29th street, Los Angeles, and a large family of sons and daughters, who are: Miss Florence Chandler and Mrs. Bertha Adams, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; a young daughter, Elizabeth, who is at home; and three sons, Harry Chandler, of Los Angeles; Wilbur Chandler, who is connected with the Crystal Ice Company of this city, and Cornelius Chandler, who has just been released from the United States navy, and who is now on the high seas.

Mrs. Mary K. Edwards, an Ohio woman who was the first missionary sent out by the Congregational women of America is still living in South Africa, over 90 years old, and with a mind still keen and active.

SHAKE-UP OF ARMY HOSPITALS IS DUE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—Following a complete survey of conditions in this district, Colonel Charles R. Forbes, director of the United States Veterans' Bureau, was to leave today for Los Angeles.

A shakeup of administrative personnel and limitation of contract hospitals is expected as a result of his visit.

Colonel Forbes plans for Northern California a large hospital, owned and operated by the bureau, for the treatment of tuberculosis patients, and a great vocational center. This will take the place of the existing methods of vocational training and hospitalization for ex-service men, which have aroused considerable criticism. This program, the director said, will be laid before President Harding.

STEEL HELMETS IN FRISCO'S MUSEUM

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—Two steel helmets, said to have been worn on the battle front in France by Marshals Haig and Petain, of the British and French armies respectively, have been presented to the museum in Golden Gate Park here by the Ninety-first Division association.

The helmets were given to the association by Mrs. Greene, widow of the late Maj. Gen. Henry A. Greene, organizer of the division. Both of the helmets were personal gifts to Gen. Greene by the British and French leaders.

The more automobiles the more bitter the fight to be corner.

AUTOS COLLIDED ON CORNER WEDNESDAY

According to a report to the police department given by Mrs. Gertrude Helwig, 327 Fairmont avenue, a car driven by her was struck at the intersection of Louise and Broadway by a machine driven by R. W. Neville, 1240 West 75th street, Los Angeles.

Mrs. Helwig claims that she was driving north on Louise and attempted to turn South at the intersection of Louise street and Broadway. The car driven by Mr. Neville, Mrs. Helwig says, was coming west on Broadway and disregarded her signal that she was preparing to turn. The left fender and running board of Mrs. Helwig's car was badly damaged. Mr. Neville, driver of the other car, stated that Mrs. Helwig did not give a signal to turn.

COMMENT ON DAY'S NEWS

By HENRY JAMES

The white wife of a Japanese has been employed in Los Angeles to entrap druggists and others into selling her liquor. She had earned the title of "Volstead vamp." Her good looks were her capital. When she rolled her bewitching eye at the dealer he felt that he just had to oblige. The urge of beauty was all against the less picturesque urge of duty. As soon as she had won a man into becoming a criminal, she betrayed him, without a thought that she herself was equally criminal. At this writing she is in jail because caught with a portion of forbidden drugs in her possession, which it seems she had not been induced to procure in promotion of morals.

On a recent day thieves stole fifteen cars from the streets of Los Angeles. Apparently the vice squad over there does not regard an automobile thief as bearing any relation to vice.

Doubtless there are many good chances to invest in oil. It is a mistake to let this fact relax the vigilance of the citizen who is approached by an oily stranger. People investing in oil wells or lands, without being familiar with the property or with the persons handling it, seldom gain anything but experience that comes at a price they ill can afford.

There is a law of coincidences the workings of which have come under the observation of most individuals. Sometimes writers of fiction have relied too much upon the unerring activity of this law, still even the skeptical must admit its existence. For example, a police commissioner in New York felt an impulse to give the appointment of deputy to a certain person, and an impulse equally strong was felt by the person in question to give the commissioner $12,000 just then. Both acted on the impulse, and now that the fact has come to light, investigators indifferent to the whole field of psychology, declare that it was not coincidence at all, but crookedness.

There are persons in Los Angeles still who presume to advocate the spoiling of Pershing square by erection of a huge library there. There are several vacant lots in that city yet. So far as the welfare of the people is concerned, Los Angeles would be wise to use one of these lots or to defer the building of the library for ten or twenty years.

From Philadelphia comes report of a wonderful operation by which two knife wounds in a man's heart were sewed up, and the patient is expected to recover. It certainly has not been long since surgeons found out that they could dally in such fashion with an organ so essential. Perhaps the old style of dying at the merest prick of the heart was due to fear.

The victim of a recent tragedy was given an elaborate funeral. Doubtless many of the flowers that were so profusely in evidence were in token of sincere friendship, and the tears were caused by genuine sorrow. That a morbid rabble gathered was not the fault of anybody but the morbid. One writer has seen fit to condemn everything concerning the unfortunate girl. Such attitude was not fair. It is the custom of decency to permit death to efface a record of ill, and to bring out recollection of the better qualities. If to heap flowers above this silent form was reprehensible, at least it was not the endeavor to insult the dead, nor to blacken the memory that kindness would permit to fade as speedily as the blossoms wither.

THE NEW CONFERENCE

By DR. FRANK CRANE

(Copyright 1921, by Frank Crane.)

The conference of nations called by President Harding will be one of the most important and intelligent steps forward taken by the human race, if it is successfully concluded.

Every one who loves the human kind, to say nothing of his own country, should earnestly work and pray that the gray wolves of partisanship, the ferocious prejudices of race hate and the pernicious activities of the blatherskites, shall not wreck it.

The League of Nations was crippled by the intransigent prejudices of the still-untaught world. At least it was an effort in the right direction.

Mr. Harding's move is another effort, and we shall support it as wholeheartedly as we did the League.

For unless we take some such measure as this we are approaching another cataclysm, more horrible than the last.

The activities of the Old Order, big with unthinkable frightfulness, are going on, by their own momentum going on now, going on continually.

Japan, according to a recent newspaper statement, has complete, building and provided for, enough commerce-raiding cruisers to drive the American merchant marine completely from the seas in two months, if war occurred.

The obvious purpose of the writer of the article quoted, and of the paper in which it appeared, was to urge America to get busy and build more and greater ships to outdo Japan.

This sort of asininity is called "preparedness." It is also praised as "common sense."

It is sheer insanity.

The only sane thing is for the two nations to get together and arrange for the peaceful, just and legal settlement of their differences.

The cost of this would be insignificant; the cost of rivalry is ruinous.

We may protest till we are black in the face that we do not want war, and that all we want is to protect ourselves, but UNLESS WE TAKE THE ONLY AND ONE POSSIBLE WAY TO PREVENT WAR, WE ARE PLAIN LIARS.

Getting ready for war never stopped war.

Organizing to secure justice without war always stops it. The blow-up of 1914 was liable to occur at any time, because all nations were engaged in the business of preparing for it.

There is no possibility of war between the States of the American Union, because they organized to eliminate it.

What Mr. Wilson tried to do and failed we hope Mr. Harding will try to do and succeed.

And in this hope the vast multitude of the human race concurs.

THE LISTENING POST

The tired man lay beneath a tree in the forest. His work had been well done, and he had the consciousness of humanity served. He had been a useful man. And wholesome.

Society he felt sure was a little better for his effort.

He had dried the tears of little children sometime. And helped in need. Encouraged in trial.

He had not lived in a house by the side of the road and waited for people to come to him. He had traveled along the highway where Need is.

And when he saw distress he inquired. And helped and comforted.

So as the tired man lay beneath the tree, he took stock of himself. His body was tired but his mind alert, his conscience at ease and his soul glad. Not that he had achieved for himself. But had sought to achieve for others.

The air was spicy with the odor of pine and balsam.

There was a bed of pine needles beneath him. Above him through the trees he saw the blue dome of the sky.

And birds twittered.

His tired body relaxed and there came a lulling drowsiness.

He wondered of the beauty of the world.

And then he knew that Browning was in that same frame of mind when he sang that all was well with it.

He was a thoughtful man.

For he was considerate.

And kind.

As we have said somewhere sometime before, kindness is the greatest culture.

Gratitude is the evidence of the highest intelligence.

And he was both kind and grateful.

So he was both cultured and intelligent.

And he said to himself as he rested and dreamed and was grateful for the fragrance of the air.

And the blue of the sky.

And the song of the birds.

And the graceful and colorful nodding of a wild flower in the grass.

For the delicate lace work of the leaves above him.

"This is like Heaven surely."

And then he dreamed again and said "Heaven is where peace is. Where kindness is. Where beauty is. Where sweetness and light and happiness are. And if these are in me, then Heaven is in me."

And one time again he lay on the sand and watched the shimmering ocean. Where the waves rolled in and broke and receded.

Leaving great mists and clouds of spray. Like human life with its struggle and effort.

And again he felt that same peace.

That lulling restfulness.

After deeds well done.

And days well spent.

And he said again:

"Heaven is here.

"For there is beauty and peace and light and color and happiness."

He watched a workman going home from his day's work.

Entering his gate where wife and children awaited him.

Heard the cry of happiness as he came.

Watched him gather up his children and kiss them.

And he said to himself again:

"Heaven is here.

For there is sweetness and beauty and love and happiness."

And he wondered why people thought of Heaven as a far off place that it was necessary to die to reach.

When Heaven is all about us if we choose to find it.

Wherever love and peace and happiness and kindness are, there Heaven is.

For there is an ideal state.

And he wondered if it were not better to teach people to bring Heaven here.

With all of the sweetness and light it has.

Than to teach them to wait for death and a Heaven brought to them.

And he wondered again what was meant when He said:

"The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand."

Did He not mean that the Kingdom of Heaven was in you and near you and about you.

If you choose to find it and enter in?

LEGION HOTEL FOR PENNILESS VETS TO BE OPENED

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—The Vets' Hotel, to be used exclusively by homeless and penniless veterans of the World War, will be opened here this fall. The hostelry, the first of its kind in America, will be conducted under the auspices of the American Legion. It will be run on the "honor system."

Men who fought overseas and are hungry, bedless and out of work can obtain food and lodging free. If the man is able to pay he can pay whatever he desires. If penniless, he can live there without charge until he obtains a job.

The hotel, located in the building housing the old Grand Pacific Hotel, will house 1,000 men, with a bath-room for every five men. Meals will be served twice a day and an employment bureau, free of charge, will be conducted as an adjunct.

"We want to emphasize the fact that this is not a charity," explained Captain Myron E. Adams, Legion commander. "The men can come, be fed and housed, and still maintain their self-respect. It is presumed that each one will pay back the costs to the hotel once they get on their feet."

He declared, however, there would

SHELL-SHOCKED VET HAS TUNNELED HEAD

BOSTON, Sept. 22.—Diagnosis of the strange case of John Shanley, Canadian war veteran, has just been completed here by the Massachusetts Clinic for Diagnosis. Shanley had previously been examined by more than 350 surgeons without success. He has been under treatment in French, English, Canadian and American hospitals since his rescue on the battlefield by a ten-year-old Belgian girl, whom he later married.

A frock in brown was trimmed with stripes of fur applied vertically to the skirt, but not extending more than three-fourths of the way to the waistline. The long, loose sleeves, slit in the elbow and tight above, were used on this dress.

GIRL RANGER ON LONELY MOUNTAIN GUARDS FROM FIRE

LARAMIE, Wyo., Sept. 22.—Miss Lorraine Lindsley, of Centennial, Wyo., a former student at the University of Wyoming, recently entered upon her duties as observer upon the Medicine Bow peak, as lookout at the highest point occupied by a woman in the Medicine Bow national forest, if not in the Rocky Mountains.

She is the daughter of A. F. Lindsley, a well-known mining man of the Centennial district. She was born at Cheyenne, but has lived for the last eleven years at Centennial, having spent a part of each summer in that time in the mountains at the foot of which the village of Centennial nestles. She is well suited for and trained to this most necessary, sometimes dangerous, and at all times lonesome work, isolated from any neighbor except the summer residents at Brooklyn Lake.

This lookout is on the highest point within the Medicine Bow National Forest, 12,005 feet above sea level, and within a small glassed-in shelter house, miles away from the nearest mountain resident, Miss Lindsley maintains a constant vigil over the thousands of acres within the forest reserve. Here a stand of three and a half billion feet of timber, valued at ten million dollars, is supported.

At the base of the peak, and in the protected shelter of the dwarfed, twisted and deformed spruce trees commonly found at timberline as the result of constant wind currents which prevent tree growth and allow limbs to grow from but one side of the tree, is a small one-room rock cabin, which serves as a home for the lookout observer from early June until late in September.

Early each morning, before the night's frost has disappeared from the grass blades and rocks, this girl observer begins the climb from her cabin house, up over boulders, rock slides, and even banks of perpetual snow, for 1,500 feet, over a trail only passable on foot, to her position upon the topmost part of the peak. Here, on the topmost pinnacle of the mountain, from early morning until

RUDEEN PROGRAM IS MUCH ENJOYED

The large audience which gathered in the auditorium of the Broadway school Wednesday night to enjoy the entertainment given under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association of that school, was rewarded by a very delightful program.

The entertainer was "Rudeen, the Bird Man," and his specialty was preceded by a moving picture illustrating the life of Abraham Lincoln. This was followed by colored slides picturing birds, accompanied by very remarkable imitations of bird songs and by whistling solos, for which Mrs. D. Baron furnished the piano accompaniment. The proceeds will be used for the improvement of the campus of the school.

Mrs. C. A. Bowles is the newly elected president of the association and the executive board will meet tomorrow to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Williams, who was elected secretary.

SCHOONER'S CREW SAVED BY STEAMER

MARSHFIELD, Ore., Sept. 22.—After having been for several days on rations which had been exhausted, members of the crew of the schooner Nottingham were saved from possible starvation last night by the steamship President, according to a report received here today.

Attempts which were made to reach the Nottingham, which had signaled for help, by members of the local Coast Guard yesterday, failed, due to the heavy gale which raged. The President, however, was able to reach the schooner and placed provisions for ten days aboard her.

The Nottingham, 97 days out from Buenos Aires, has resumed her voyage to Port Townsend.

Don't homely women ever have grievances against men? Then why is it that only the beautiful ones do the killing?

MRS. CHARLES FRESHMAN ENTERTAINS CLUB

Members of the Wednesday Afternoon club were entertained by Mrs. Charles Freshman at her home in Los Angeles. The usual cafeteria luncheon was enjoyed at noon and the afternoon was devoted to needlework and chat.

Mrs. Charles Glover read a long letter from two absent members, Mrs. H. Lee Clotworthy and Miss Clara Ringert, who have been spending the past three months with relatives in Laramie, Wyo. They have enjoyed a wonderful summer but will be glad to get home to Glendale. They will stop in San Francisco, reaching here about September 29.

The ladies who enjoyed Mrs. Freshman's hospitality were Mesdames Charles Perkins, G. D. Roach, Jack Hearnshaw, Charles Sanders, Herbert Reed and G. Reed of Long Beach, William Gibson and Charles Glover, all of Glendale with the exception mentioned. Mrs. Hearnshaw will entertain the club at its next meeting two weeks hence.

NIMBLE FINGERS CLUB CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

The Nimble Fingers Club met last night at the home of Mrs. Hattie Tiffany, 129 West Los Feliz road, with about 20 members present, and the evening was spent at sewing and knitting. During the session numbers were distributed for the beautiful basket design quilt, for which tickets had been sold. Mrs. Flora Pixley was awarded the quilt. Tickets are also being sold on a pretty rag rug. The sum of $10 was realized on the quilt.

After a short business meeting, delicious refreshments of apple pie, cheese, coffee and hot chocolate were served. The hostess then brought in a beautiful coconut cake, decorated in greenery and with one tiny candle lighted in the middle. This was in honor of the first birthday anniversary of the club, which was one year old yesterday.

The hostesses for the evening were Mrs. William Crawford and Mrs. Susie Peck. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Miss Ruth Ryan, 332 West Acacia avenue.

KINDERGARTEN CLUB ELECTS ITS OFFICERS

The first regular meeting of the Glendale Kindergarten Club was held Tuesday afternoon in the kindergarten room of the Cerritos avenue school. It is the aim of the club to keep in touch with the most advanced movements in kindergarten work, and it was with this in mind that plans were discussed for meetings for the coming year. The members are all local kindergarten teachers.

The following officers were elected: President, Miss Sue Crump. Vice-president, Miss Dorothy Hunt. Secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida Corey. A pleasant social hour followed the business meeting.

WILL ATTEND BIG NATIONAL CONVENTION

Mrs. Samuel Dick and Mrs. J. B. Sherwood will leave tomorrow on the steamship "Yale" for Sacramento, where they will attend the National convention of War Mothers. While in the north they will visit at Mare Island, where Miss Jane Dick is government librarian. They will also visit Mrs. Dick's other daughter, Mrs. Ralph Penland at San Francisco. Mrs. Sherwood's son, Bert Sherwood, is secretary to the commander of the "Yale."

HOME NURSING CLASS AWAITS MISS McALONAN

Dr. J. E. Eckles, city health officer, is awaiting news from Miss McAlonan, city health nurse, who was summoned to Los Angeles on account of the illness of her father last week, and who is still with him.

Miss McAlonan was about to organize a class in home nursing in the south part of the city. The matter is being held in abeyance pending Miss McAlonan's return.

CHOIR MEMBERS TO HAVE SOCIAL

Members of the choir of the First Methodist Church will have a social and marshmallow roast this evening following rehearsal at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Wright, 141 North Louise.

Miss Isabelle Isgrig is director of the vested choir, which numbers about 30 singers, and Mrs. H. W. Randall the organist.

U. AND I. CLUB TO STUDY U. S. FORESTS

The U. and I. Club of South Glendale is to study our national parks the coming year.

At its next meeting, the Sequoia National Park, which was visited this summer by one of the members, will be the theme of the afternoon.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON CLUB MEETS SATURDAY

A special meeting of the board of directors of the Thursday Afternoon Club will be held at the home of Mrs. A. J. Becker, on Eulalia street, next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, to consider business matters in connection with the sale of the lot formerly owned by the club on South Maryland avenue to be put out at interest and several loans have been submitted to the officials.

BOOST

By MRS. A. M. ROWE (With apologies to Spirit of Ella Wheeler Wilcox. Recently read at the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle.)

Boost and the world boosts with you, Knock and you're on the shelf; This Circle gets sick of the one who kicks And wishes he'd kick himself.

Boost when the sun is shining, Boost when it starts to rain; If they won't join this Fall, don't grieve and bawl, But get up and boost again.

Boost for the town's advancement, Boost for this "Circle" sublime; For the lady who's found on the top-most round Is the booster every time.

MRS. PECK GIVES INTERESTING TALK

Mrs. J. E. Peck of Calexico, formerly of Glendale, has recently returned to Glendale where she will remain until the health of her little baby is restored.

Mrs. Peck gave a very interesting talk yesterday at the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle, in which she told what great inspiration the reading circle here had given her, and how she started similar circles at Calexico. Mrs. Peck said the work was taken up eagerly by the schools there.

For the past three years Mrs. Peck has been a member of the high school board and more recently acted as president. On account of having to come to Glendale, a new president was elected in her place. The office of county superintendent of public instruction in Imperial Valley was offered her, but she could not accept, and feels that it was through her work here in the circle that the offer was made.

Mrs. Peck was the guest at luncheon yesterday, of Mr. and Mrs. George U. Moyses at the high school, and she had a very enjoyable time visiting the various departments of the school.

MISS BERTHA PORTER HONOREE AT PARTY

Miss Ethel Preston entertained Tuesday evening at a pleasant little farewell affair for Miss Bertha Porter, who leaves today for her home in Kansas. The party was at the home of Miss Preston, 452 West California, and was quite informal.

The guest list included, besides the honoree, Misses Anita Fletcher, Jennie Horsch, Marie Maier, Margery Smith, Nellie Warner, Anna Levy, Ella Dockter, Jeannette Heideman, Anna Priol, Maurine and Phyllis Baker, Evelyn Guenther, and Mrs. C. M. Nelson, teacher of the Sunday school class of which the guests are members.

Miss Porter, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Porter, has been the summer guest of her sister, Mrs. James Culver, 1134 San Rafael street, this city.

MRS. A. D. HURD IS HOSTESS AT DINNER

Mrs. A. D. Hurd, 110 South Adams street, entertained at a very pretty dinner party last night in honor of her husband's birthday anniversary. The house was attractively decorated in asters and in the center of the dining table was a birthday cake decorated with candles. A very pleasant evening was spent at cards and several musical numbers were given by Miss Veda Knapp at the piano, and Glenn Hurd on the violin.

The guests who helped Mr. Hurd celebrate were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Davis, and daughter Mary Olive, Miss Margaret Holm, Miss Veda Knapp, C. E. Westlake, Jack D. Hall, and Glenn Hurd.

MISSIONARY HERE ON SHORT VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bacon, 900 South Glendale avenue, had as their guest yesterday and overnight, Miss Emma Lyon from Nanking, China, who is here on a tour.

Miss Lyon has charge of a girls' school at Nanking and will leave in a few days for a visit in the eastern states.

BETTY ROSS CLARK APPEARS IN PERSON

An all-star cast of unusual merit is featured in "Mother O' Mine," T. H. Ince's greatest melodrama, which opens today at the Palace Grand. Lloyd Hughes, Joseph Kilgour, Betty Blythe, Betty Ross Clark and Claire McDowell, are the players who assume the leading roles. Hughes, who for some time has appeared in leading and feature roles in Ince productions, has thousands of friends and admirers. Kilgour, stage and screen favorite, is a "heavy" of note, his success in that type of role being gauged by playgoers who regard him as the "meanest man on the screen."

Miss Blythe's beauty combined with her dramatic capabilities, has elevated her to the highest ranks, while Claire McDowell, who plays the title role, is noted for her similar characterization in more than two score of screen successes.

Betty Ross Clark, who plays the sweetheart of Lloyd Hughes, will make a personal appearance on the Palace Grand stage each evening during the run.

DUMMY DOG'S STAND PUZZLED POOR MIKE

The joke was on "Mike" (a dog), but he doesn't know it. Standing in front of the Glendale Music Co., 109 North Brand boulevard, is a large papier-mache dog that is used as an advertisement for a popular make of phonograph, being the trade-mark "His Master's Voice."

Little Mike was walking serenely along the street when he caught a glimpse of the "advertisement" dog. A second later the bristles were standing straight up on his back and he was "rarin'" for a fight. He walked bravely up to the papier-mache dog and gave him a growl. His opponent did not budge—just remained looking at him. Mike, not liking the idea of being disdained, flew at the stationary canine and grabbed him by the leg. The papier-mache dog did not move—did not yelp—just stood there looking over the horizon.

Mike, fearing that something was up, backed off and glared at his opponent, whose attitude did not change in the least, and then Mike turned and started up the street. Probably he is still wondering why that great big hunk of bologna-fodder didn't have sand enough to scrap.

GOVERNOR GRANTS WOMAN A PARDON

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 22.—Because of her grave physical danger and because he "did not wish to inflict her with the humiliation of dying within prison walls," Governor Stephens commuted to expire at once the sentence of Mrs. Mary A. Gregson, 68 years of age, who was convicted of second degree murder in Stockton in January and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment in San Quentin.

WAR MOTHERS TO ORGANIZE CHAPTER

A meeting will be held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Samuel Dick, 309 North Louise street, to organize the Glendale War Mothers. Mrs. Martha Hopkins, county war mother, of Highland Park, will be present and will help to organize the Glendale chapter.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS HOLDING MEETING

The "Soamgeteha" Camp Fire Girls, under the guardianship of Mrs. Viola Andrews, will hold a meeting this afternoon at the home of Emma Laura Cooper on North Central avenue.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR MISS NELLIE ROWE

Miss Nellie Rowe of 216 South Orange street was surprised Thursday night by girls in the G. G. Sunday School class, of which she is a member. It was also a farewell for Miss Grace Judd, who is leaving Sunday for Pomona, where she will enter college.

Mrs. Rowe was in on the secret, and after the girls had enjoyed an evening of games, she served ice cream and home-made cake.

Did you ever know a young husband to brag about how intellectual his wife was? Neither did we.

MRS. FUNK ELECTED WOMAN'S SOCIETY

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Funk returned to Glendale Wednesday from a ten days' trip to the northern part of the state. Four days were spent at San Jose, where Mrs. Funk attended the Lutheran Women's Missionary convention for the state of California, and over which she presided.

Mrs. Funk was also honored by reelection to the office of president of the Women's Society for the ensuing year. Dr. Funk, who attended the Synodical convention, reports special progress among the Lutheran church of California during the past year.

Glendale's Big Musical Opportunity

THE opening of this institution marks the beginning of a new era in the progress and development of Glendale. It heralds the dawn of a city whose future is interwoven with the advancement of culture and the foundation of a center devoted to the study of the arts. This institution is founded on a sincere desire to serve. It has the unqualified endorsement of the leading men and women of Glendale.

We have a staff of capable instructors whose very names are a guarantee of the excellence of our institution. And these men and women are recognized as among the most eminent musical authorities in the West.

Students in any stage of musical progress, from the youngest child to the advanced student, will find us ably equipped in all departments.

These Departments Include
PIANO VIOLIN VOICE
PIPE ORGAN

Harmony—Theory—Musical History
Orchestral Instruments and Harp

The Piano Department is headed by Miss Elso Breidt, assisted by Mrs. Hernando Lee, Pearl G. Curran—all recognized as instructors of unusual ability.

The Violin Department is under the able direction of M. Julius Bierlich and assistants, whose work in America and abroad is eloquent testimony of his talent and genius.

The Pipe Organ Department is in charge of Mr. Albert Tufts, the leading exponent of organ music in the West.

In fact in every department there is that ability and knowledge which brings an institution fame and prestige.

Our first semester has started. Enrollments should be made at once as the classes are filling very rapidly. Call at the academy or phone Glendale 607-W for complete information without obligation on your part.

TRUCK TRAFFIC IS OBJECT OF MOVE BY CHAMBERS

San Diego Chamber Requests
Governor Call Session.
Matter of Roads

HIGH TRUCK TAX ASKED

The preservation and expansion of the highway system of California is being discussed by Chambers of Commerce in this section of the country. A resolution passed recently by the San Diego Chamber of Commerce is being circulated among the various chambers. The resolution was received by the Glendale Chamber of Commerce Tuesday, and follows:

Whereas, we believe that the heavy trucks in this state are responsible for a considerable portion of the damage to our highways system, that the perfect type of road for clay and adobe soil in this state has not yet been developed, and we expect some failures of the highways under these conditions,

Therefore, we, the board of directors of the San Diego Chamber of Commerce, in session this 12th day of September, 1921, state as our belief:

"1. That California has a right to be proud of its highway system, for the reason that it is known all over the United States as the best in America today.

"2. We are reliably informed that there are yet to be graded and paved 3200 miles of state highway; that the available funds, including present federal aid allotment, is approximately $38,000,000; that the last legislature added 160 miles of state highway and only appropriated $70,000 for its construction; that the amount of money available is wholly inadequate to complete the construction of the present state highway system.

"3. That to build the expensive highways to take care of the heavy auto truck traffic, the state must go to the limit of its bonding capacity, and that this policy, if carried out, would mean increasing the heavy taxation burden already on the citizens of the state and would allow the trucking industry to come into unfair competition with the railroads.

"4. Although California offers to the truck owner the benefit of probably the largest mileage of state highways of any state in the Union, yet our fees are ridiculously low. California charges approximately $30 per annum for five-ton trucks, while even the little state of Connecticut charges $187.50. Two-ton trucks pay in California $8.80 per annum, while the average for 33 states is $33.30.

"We recommend that Governor Stephens call a special session of the legislature, and include in his call the question of legislation concerning our highway system, and that proper laws be enacted governing taxation, the weight, the width of body and the rate of speed of all motor driven vehicles, with severe penalties for the violation thereof."

POPE RECOGNIZES LEAGUE OF NATIONS

GENEVA, Sept. 22.—Pope Benedict for the first time has formally recognized the league of nations. Dr. Van Karmabek, of Holland, newly elected president of the league assembly today received a letter from the pontiff which said in part:

"The new alarm concerning Russia becomes graver every day. The suffering is so great that only the united efforts of the peoples and their governments can assuage it. We therefore address through your excellency the representatives of all the states united under the presidency and appeal in the strongest terms to their feelings of humanity and brotherhood in order that they may take prompt and effective measures to aid the unhappy people of Russia."

GOING EAST TO BUY FURNITURE STOCK

John Robert White of North Orange street has gone to New York a little in advance of his usual fall trip. He wished to have an opportunity to inspect stocks of carpets, rugs, draperies, etc., before the regular opening. Mr. White will make purchases for the California Furniture Co. of Los Angeles, of which he is an officer, and will return about the middle of October.

ELLISON CASE HERE CLOSELY WATCHED BY PHYSICIANS

One of the wonders of the medical world has been performed at the Glendale Research hospital, according to medical journals.

In April, Miss Evelyn Ellison entered the hospital from her home in Berkeley suffering from anemia and malnutrition. According to physicians of the Bay cities, who gave up her case as hopeless, she was slowly starving to death. Miss Ellison had refused to eat and when she arrived at the hospital she weighed only 54 pounds.

Last night, Miss Ellison and her sister, Mildred, left Glendale for Berkeley where both girls will enter school. Evelyn Ellison has improved so much that she is able to eat and has, within the past five months, gained 21 pounds.

Upon her arrival at the hospital it was said that the only hope for recovery of Miss Ellison lay in blood transfusion.

Mildred Ellison, younger sister of the girl, offered blood to save the life of her sister. Another strange phase of the girl's illness was manifested when a growth of hair started all over the girl's body. This growth has entirely disappeared, it is said.

The sisters will return to the hospital once every month for additional blood transfusions until the patient is restored to normal health. While at the Glendale Research hospital, Miss Ellison was visited and interviewed and examined by the leading doctors of Southern California, and the progress of her case has been watched by medical journals all over the nation.

CHAMBER TEAMS TO HAVE CONFERENCE ON DRIVE

Members of the four teams that have been participating in the chamber of commerce drive for new members, are expected to gather at the White Inn Friday night at 6 o'clock for dinner and conference in regard to next week's drive.

The team captains are Mrs. Ella Richardson, Dr. Jessie A. Russell, Mrs. Margaret Biggs and E. F. Ellison. The following Friday, September 30, the end of the drive will be celebrated with a big complimentary dinner in the banquet hall of the First Methodist church at which the special guests will be the new members enrolled during the drive and the old members who have been instrumental in persuading them to join.

GENERAL WOOD TO ASK RETIREMENT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Application of Maj.-Gen. Wood for retirement from active service, effective October 5, supplemented by recommendations for the general's appointment as Governor of the Philippines on that date, was laid before President Harding today by Secretary Weeks.

ANOTHER DRIVE FOR LOCAL POSTOFFICE

The gleam of mortal conflict comes to the eye of Secretary Rhoades of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce every time he thinks of the plan for an independent postoffice for Glendale. Efforts that have been made to secure a postoffice have been to no avail. Glendale residents still get their mail through the Los Angeles postoffice and consequently they are not getting efficient service.

"I am going to write another letter to Congressman Walter F. Lineberger and see if we can't start something along this postoffice line," said Mr. Rhoades this morning. "We feel that it is within his power to give us this improvement and the people of Glendale can rest assured that we will leave nothing undone that would tend to bring us an independent postoffice."

Years ago this question was agitated, but it was eventually dropped. Several times since it has been revived, but each time it died.

Several months ago it was taken up by the board of directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce. At that time a committee was appointed and a letter was sent to Washington, but the best that was received was the assurance that an inspector would be sent here.

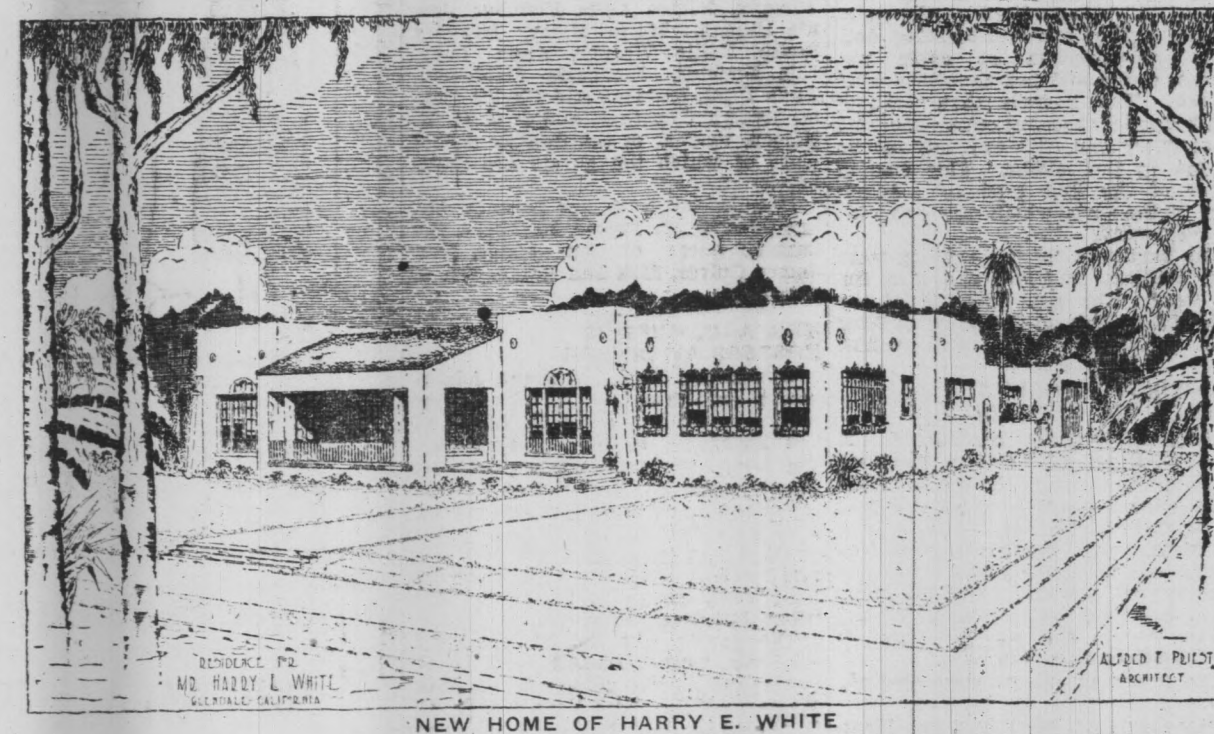

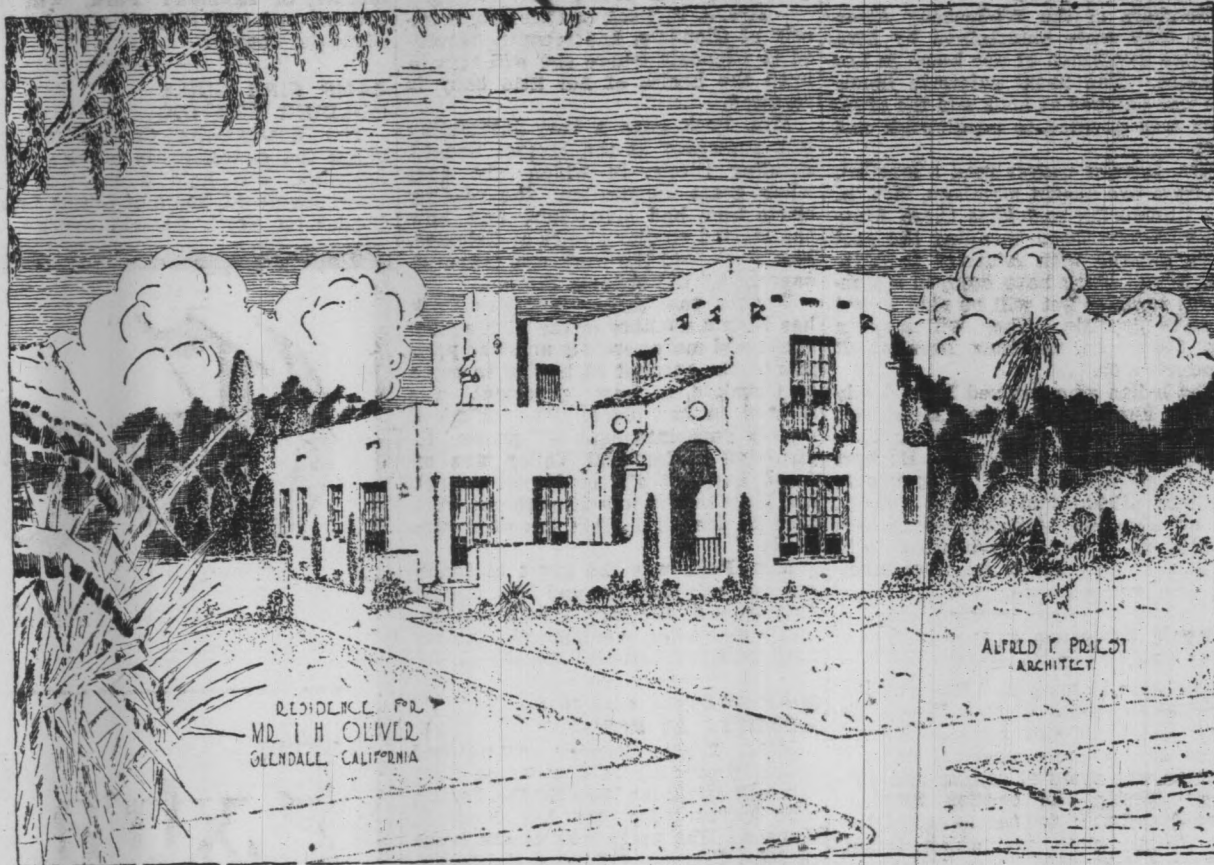

Upon request of Secretary Rhoades a large number of the influential citizens wrote to the postal authorities at Washington asking that the independent postoffice be given Glendale, but to date nothing in the way of satisfaction has been secured.

Too many are willing to meet temptation more than half way.

Hardly anybody deserves much prosperity. It hurts them much worse than poverty.

A backward man has a hard time going forward.

BEAUTIFUL NEW HOMES IN GLENDALE

Architect Who Designed the Elks and Glendale Theater
Buildings Completes Two New Homes Here of
Up-to-Date Spanish Design—Both Beauties

Two beautiful homes, by some regarded as the most artistic in Glendale, are to grace North Jackson street, the one, owned by Harry E. White which is finished, the other by Irving H. Oliver, which is nearing completion.

Both were designed by Architect Alfred T. Priest of this city, to whose credit are so many other fine buildings in our city. Mr. Priest was the architect of the Elks club and of the Glendale Theater building.

The home of Mr. Oliver is just above Doran and is a 2-story, 8-room structure of Spanish style, hollow tile construction and plaster exterior, with a basement under all. The interior of the main rooms on the first floor will be finished in Spanish design, with hard wood floors throughout, tiled bathroom and built-in plumbing, and gas heating units electrically controlled.

The garage, of harmonious design, will have space for two cars, and the grounds will be laid out with reference to the Spanish character of the house. Across the front of the lot will be placed a wall topped with an ornamental iron grill.

The Harry E. White residence on the corner of Jackson and Doran is a one-story structure of Spanish type with eight rooms and basement built around a patio.

Gas units electrically controlled will heat it. A fine billiard room will be finished in the typically Spanish manner. Flagstone stepping blocks and a tropical garden in the patio will carry out the Spanish keynote of the home as will also the garden walls which join the house and the garage with iron grill work trim, and ornamental gateways.

The garage contains complete servants' quarters—bedroom, kitchen, dining room and bath.

These two houses have set a new standard for residence construction in Glendale.

HOWARD WALKER IS TO HAVE AN AGENCY

Howard W. Walker, who for several years has been actively engaged in building in Glendale, will soon begin the construction of a building on Stevenson avenue, Los Angeles, where he and Gifford G. Todd, will maintain a Ford agency.

Mr. Walker was formerly connected with the Ford agency in Glendale, while Mr. Todd has for the past two years been with the Finch Ford agency in Los Angeles. The building that will be constructed by Mr. Walker will be modern in every way and will have a frontage of 100 feet.

DISREGARDED SIGNAL CAUSE OF COLLISION

Failure to heed a signal to turn is given by F. C. Bogardus, 7180 Raymond avenue, Pasadena, as the cause of a collision at Broadway and Orange street Wednesday afternoon. According to Mr. Bogardus, he was driving south on Orange street and at the intersection of Broadway he held out his hand, indicating that he was going to make a turn.

A. C. Martin, 4117 Parkdale, according to Mr. Bogardus' report, disregarded the signal and attempted to make the crossing. Mr. Martin, according to the report, did not have the right of way and drove by another machine in attempting to make the turn.

MRS. HARDING STOPS FRIEND FROM SMOKING

Mrs. Harding restrains Mrs. John T. Pratt from smoking a cigarette when the cameraman takes their photograph. The photograph was made while Mrs. Harding and Mrs. Pratt were strolling on the lawn of the Piping Rock, Long Island, Country Club, while the President was playing an 18-hole foursome.

Real Estate Review

Transportation has been one of the vital questions in the west and north-west section of the city for several years. There are some sections in this district that are more than a mile distant from the business center of Glendale and almost a mile from the nearest carline.

It is this lack of transportation that is delaying the growth of that section of the city. The west side of the city is growing and the number of residents is increasing steadily, but the growth is not as fast as it would be if there was a carline serving the district. It is only natural that the west section of the city should grow, in fact that is the only direction, except north, that further growth is possible. In connection with the natural advantages that the west side of Glendale has, a carline would boost property values and open a market for west side property that would exceed the dream of even the most optimistic.

A tentative plan for serving this section of Glendale has been offered by a real estate agent of the city and so far seems to be one of the most practical suggestions that has been offered. The plan offered for the solution of the transportation question in the western section of the city is this: Instead of routing the Burbank line up Brand boulevard as at present, let it branch away from the main line at San Fernando road, go northwest on San Fernando road to Pacific avenue, north on Pacific to Broadway, making a detour on Broadway to Kenilworth and back to Pacific avenue. At the intersection of Pacific avenue and Gilbert street the present tracks of the Burbank line could be used into Burbank.

This plan seems to be the most practical answer to the transportation question in the west and northwest section of the city and would provide car service to a section of the city that at present is absolutely without accommodation and would not reduce the service that the business section of Glendale is receiving at present.

It is a conservative forecast that if such a plan were to materialize that the day work was started on the laying of the tracks property values on the entire west side of the city would increase at least 10 per cent and would continue to increase with the progress of the line.

Expecting an unusually busy fall and winter season in real estate business for Glendale, the Glendale Realty Company has enlarged its staff by the addition to the sales force of Priches Victor and A. D. Knox. These two men are excellent salesmen and have a thorough knowledge of the real estate business in Southern California. They understand the business not only from the viewpoint of the agent, but from the buyer's and seller's side. With this thorough knowledge of the business it will not be difficult for these two men to be of real service to both parties.

Other members of the sales force of the Glendale Realty Company are Messrs. Brown, Gannon and Greenlaw, who are all experienced salesmen and familiar with the business in all its phases.

By the additions to their sales force the Glendale Realty Company is merely lining up with the other agents of the city who are confident that this fall and winter will be the busiest season that the realty men of Glendale have ever experienced. All of the agents in the city have the same thing to say and that is that the demand for property in Glendale is increasing every day and that now is the logical time to purchase real estate here, whether for home, business or investment property for land values in this city will never be lower than they are at present.

THE OPTIMIST

(Pickle Prices are Coming Down.—Press dispatch.)
Don't fret, old top. He's wrong who whines.
Behind the cloud the sun still shines.
Rent may be high and woes be deep
With winter near and shoes not cheap,
Bread may be slow in dropping price,
No change in butter, eggs and ice.
But hear and chase away that frown:
The pickle price is coming down.

This morning when the red sun rose
And I put on my morning clothes,
I was concerned myself and sad,
My last week's pay gone to the bad
For groceries and meats and rent,
The landlord's unearned increment,
And I was filled with bankrupt blues
The while I stooped and laced my shoes.

I wondered how on earth I'd meet
My bills for clothing hands and feet,
For steak and chops and bread and beans,
That blow my pay to smithereens.
And as I read the daily press,
Quite sombre, blue and laughterless,
This bit of news drove off the frown:
"The pickle price is coming down."

And then I laughed, a joyous laugh,
And I was quite disposed to chaff
And joke and to myself I said:
"There still is balm in Gilead."
And so I say he's wrong who whines,
Behind the cloud the sun still shines.
Who has the hardihood to frown
When pickle prices coming down?

MARSHAL PILSUDSKI SENDS ULTIMATUM

BERLIN, Sept. 22.—Marshal Pilsudski, President of Poland, sent an ultimatum to the Russian Soviet representative at Warsaw, threatening to break off diplomatic relations according to a special dispatch printed today by the Rote Fahne, Socialist newspaper, which it received from Moscow.

POSTMASTER HAYS TO INVESTIGATE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Following closely the statement that the Department of Justice was investigating the Ku Klux Klan, Postmaster-General Hays disclosed to newspaper men that agents of his department also were inquiring into its activities. He declined to say on what angle the investigation was being made.

CORRECTION

A typographical error in the Gordon store ad of Thursday made the special for Thursday, Friday and Saturday read: "100 Dresses and Sport Skirts at $12.50." It should have read: "100 Dress and Sport Skirts at $12.50."

UPHOLD HONOR OF SCHOOL IS THEME OF LISLIE HENRY

Packed to the last inch of standing room was the high school auditorium this morning for the talk by Leslie Henry before the assembly of boys. Not less than five hundred students were present.

Mr. Henry, who is a magnetic, fluent speaker, was prominent in the liberty bond campaigns during the war and his address this morning was received with enthusiastic applause.

His chief theme was the responsibility of the individual student in upholding the honor and high standing of his school. To that end he urged participation in all student activities, particularly athletic. He quoted the fine scholarship record of members of the team which won the California championship in football last year and said that the men who make good after they leave the schools are more often than not the boys who were prominent in the life of the school. They are able to do all these things and maintain a standing in scholarship by training themselves to concentrate their minds on whatever they are doing.

He said it should never be forgotten that the instructors have been over the same ground that the students are treading and that they are giving their best to promote the welfare of the students, and stimulate their progress. The smart Alecks that cut up pranks in class and prevent other students from getting what the teacher is trying to impart, and who hoot over the decisions of the umpire in the ball games are the students who are harming the school and who should be discontinued, he declared.

THOUSANDS OF DEATHS CAN BE PREVENTED

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 22.—Approximately 28 per cent of the more than 20,000 annual deaths incident to child birth could be prevented, delegates to the convention of the American Association of Obstetricians, Gynecologists and Abdominal Surgeons, in session here, were told today by Dr. A. M. Mendenhall, instructor in obstetrics at the University of Indiana.

SCUDDERS RETURN FROM TRIP EAST

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Scudder have returned to their home at 3200 West Harvard street, after a sojourn of three months in Summit and other counties of Ohio.

They are very glad to get back and Mr. Scudder says he found so many changes and so many old friends had passed away that he does not want to return. July was extremely hot and trying to Californians in the east, and September following a cool August, was also very warm. This trying weather encouraged them to hasten their return to Glendale.

Other conditions were somewhat depressing. A good crop of corn has matured but the price is very low. They found much unemployment and money hard to get on any kind of security.

The Scudders say the travel coming this way is heavier than that going east and attribute it to the great prosperity on this coast.

GREAT DEMAND BY FOREIGN WORKERS

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—More than 1200 girls and women recently applied for appointments as foreign missionaries, according to Miss Mabelle Rae McVeigh, candidate for secretary of the Woman's American Baptist Foreign Mission Society. Ages of applicants, Miss McVeigh said, range from 14 to 45.

"Probably one reason for the astonishing increase in the number of applicants," Miss McVeigh said, "is the fact that the war has made the world seem smaller, so that foreign lands no longer seem as distant as they formerly did."

FIRST METHODIST IN ANNUAL SESSION SHOW PROGRESS

The annual meeting of the First Methodist Church last night was an affair of good fellowship and congratulation. It was given by the official board, but was prepared and served by the women of the church. Mrs. C. H. Starkey headed the committee in charge, and it was the largest banquet ever served to church members, covers being laid for 410.

When the plates were cleared away, Dr. Joseph Marple gave several vocal numbers, and A. W. Tower was called upon to outline the general program for the coming year, particularly as to finances. He congratulated his fellow members on the fact that they are closing the year with money in the treasury, instead of a deficit, and with a membership that has increased 25 per cent during the past 12 months.

The present church roster contains approximately 1,000 names.

The church debt has been subscribed in full and is being paid in weekly installments so that the stewards of the church have no anxiety on that score.

The evening closed with a song-fest, led by Dr. Marple. A unanimous request for the return of Dr. C. M. Crist, pastor of the church, is said to have been forwarded to Bishop Leonard, and the congregation hopes the conference will make no change.

MISSIONARY WORK IS DISCUSSED HERE

About seventy ladies attended the all-day meeting of women's societies of the Glendale Presbyterian church yesterday, the forenoon being given to work on missionary boxes.

At the afternoon session, which followed the luncheon, Rev. W. E. Edmonds, pastor, led the devotions and an address was made by Miss Dawson, general secretary of the home mission board of New York. She particularly mentioned work in Tennessee and Utah and among the Indians in Arizona. A short business session preceded the address. The program of the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. M. P. Harrison.

It's the little things that annoy the most. If a man was being led to the gallows and a mosquito should alight on his nose, he'd slap at it.

DISCUSS PLANS

The South Glendale Improvement Association of which Stuart Street is president and Mrs. E. V. Bacon, secretary, will meet this evening in the municipal building at the corner of Brand and Los Feliz, to discuss matters of interest to that part of the city, particularly congestion at Cerritos avenue school, and fire protection there. The widening of Los Feliz road may also be considered.

Until Nine Tonight

From 9 this morning until 9 tonight we are holding open house in our new banking home at 104 East Broadway. We feel justly proud of our banking room and its fittings—which were "made in Glendale"—and we want you to come in and inspect them and, at the same time, give us an opportunity of getting acquainted.

You will find a cordial welcome awaiting you. Our Stockholders, Directors and Officers are all Glendale men, and you will enjoy the friendly atmosphere at this Bank, which is distinctly a Glendale institution.

We earnestly solicit your patronage in any of our Departments. Consider the various ways in which we are prepared to serve you:

- Term Savings Accounts, yielding 4 per cent interest, payable semi-annually.
- Safe Deposit Boxes in our new steel and concrete, electrically protected vault.
- Escrow and Collection Departments.

Everyone opening a Savings Account of $1.00 or more today will receive a handsome leather memorandum book with the owner's name stamped in gold on the cover. There will be a pocket size for the men and a size to fit the purse for the ladies, and this little book will prove a useful souvenir for the first depositors at the First Savings Bank.
